

We are not cut from the same cloth,
I act on my words while you stay stuck in thought.

You do talk a big talk
But that's all you've got
I'm not fooled by bots
A mere copy of unoriginal thought

Rather than be fooled by you
This is what I'll do
Any obstacle, I'll rip through
I will outwork any and everyone
Witness my greatness come true

So yeah we are through
You do you boo
My dreams no longer feature you.
