

My reality

Why do you let weakness haunt you?
Is it a sad lie or just an ugly truth?
You wanna fly, but you're too scared to die.
So you get high, close your eyes and pray to god.
When will you realize?
Your hands can make any dream come alive.

Wishes alone don't turn dreams into reality.
As you listen to me, do you feel this energy?
Struggle is just another part of our journey.
I know where this path leads.
Greatness eagerly awaits me.

I'm just being honest, can't you see?
Mediocrity wasn't meant for me.
This is my reality.
Legendary is the life I seek.
Am I being too cocky when I speak?
Saying that I can change this crazy world in front of me.
